Entertainment

Sophie | Doss
August Hall
September 15

SOPHIE is Sophie Long, a Scotland-born, Los Angeles-based pop musician and artist. She broke out in 2012 with "Nothing More To Say," a lurid dance-pop twist on house music. But it wasn't until her subsequent singles, "Bipp" and "Lemonade," that she emerged as a fully-formed hyperreal pop star, blending U.K. dance music rhythms with maximalist cotton-candy synthesizers and helium-inflated high pitched vocals.

American Made Drama of Grit and Heart
A.C.T.

September 26 - October 21

A.C.T. kicks off the 2018–19 season with the Pulitzer Prize–winning drama that had Broadway critics and audiences on their feet.

In Reading, Pennsylvania—the blue-collar heart of America’s steel industry—a tight-knit group of factory workers has gathered in the local bar for generations to share laughs, hopes, and cold beers. But as the country heads into a new millennium, recession looms, and a union lock-out turns assembly line into picket line, one event will send shockwaves through these lifelong friends, pitting them against each other in the struggle to survive.
