

THE DONATELLO WEEKLY CALENDAR

March 2nd – March 8th, 2020

CLUB LEVEL INFO: Donatello Concierge - Daily from 6:30am to 10:30pm Tel (415) 885-8806

CLUB LEVEL FEATURES

- Fitness Center, co-ed Jacuzzi, separate men's and women's dry saunas located in locker rooms.
- Therapeutic & relaxing massages (at the club or in your room). Ask your Concierge to make an appointment for you.
- Complimentary coffee, tea, and hot chocolate enjoyed in our comfortable lounge or take in the view on the terrace.
- Club Concierge helps with theater & event tickets, restaurant reservations, sightseeing tours & more!
- Trivia Night on Tuesdays from 5pm-6:30pm!
- Wine and Cheese Reception on Fridays from 4pm -5pm

HAPPENING THIS WEEK

Monday March 2nd - "North Beach Comedy Night" Come out to North Beach for a great night of cocktails and laughter. Every Monday, The HellaFunny Comedy Collective will hand-select six of San Francisco's Best Comedians to rock the mic. Comedians performing at this show have been seen on Comedy Central, ABC, NBC, SF Sketchfest and more... Hosted by Tim Young of HellaFunny. Tope Lounge | 1326 Grant Ave. 7pm to 2am. Cost: Free with RVSP – otherwise $10 at the Door.

Tuesday March 3rd – "de Young Museum Free Admission Day" Located in beautiful Golden Gate Park, the de Young Museum is a landmark art museum founded in 1895. Your visit includes a whirlwind trip around the world as the museum's collections feature priceless treasures and works of arts from the 17th through the 20th centuries from the Americas, textile arts, and art of Africa and Oceania. 50 Hagiwara Tea Garden Drive. 9:30am to 5:15pm. Cost: Free.

Wednesday March 4th - : "Heart of the City Farmers Market" A uniquely independent, farmer-oriented, non-profit farmers market, Heart of the City features around 30 local farmers and artisan food vendors offering a selection of fresh local produce, bakery, pastas, farm products, hummus and kettle corn. 7am-5:30pm. UN Plaza | Above Civic Center BART Station.

Thursday March 5th – "Asian Art Museum's $10 Thursday Nights" Spend an evening in their beautiful building enjoying the galleries, fun talks, lively gatherings and intimate hangs with artists. The museum will be open until 9 pm and general admission is just $10 but there is a $10 surcharge for special exhibition tickets. 200 Larkin St.

Friday March 6th – "North Beach First Fridays Art Crawl" Over A dozen galleries, museums, bars, and restaurants stay open late for a self-guided First Fridays Art Crawl with special events to showcase the ever-growing collections of art and entertainment that diversify North Beach. Venues may vary each month, but here's who are typically involved: 1317 Gallery & Design Studio; Canessa Gallery; Church Key; Grey City Gallery; La Trappe; Live Worms Gallery; Macchiarini Creative Design; Modern Eden Gallery; Mule Gallery; Naivasha Studio & Gallery; Orangeland; Soul! Gallery; Sweetie's Art Bar; Telegraph Hill Gallery and The North Beach Bauhaus. 6-9pm.

Saturday March 7th – "2020 Tulip Day: 100,000 Free Pick-Your-Own Tulips" The "Tulip Garden" at Union Square will open to the public at 1:00 p.m. and it will be closed at 4:30 p.m. By that time, all 100,000 tulips will have been picked and will soon be giving many American households a wonderful feeling of early spring.

Sunday March 8th – "SF's Huge Block Party: 2020 Kick Off" Enjoy 1.5+ miles of car-free community space for you and your neighborhood to enjoy. Come check out Activity Hubs on 16th and 24th Streets for free fun, family-friendly activities offered by local nonprofits, community groups, and small businesses. Walk, dance, skate, bike, play, and explore the whole route while taking in live music, education & professional development resources, blood pressure screenings, food demos and more. 11am to 4pm. Valencia St. and 24th. Cost: Free.